

A Prayer for Oneness

IN OUR MARRIAGE

Dear Heavenly Father,

I pray that you give us:

A sweetness of speech

A desire to work through struggles and stick to it when we are tempted to flee

Eyes only for each other

A desire to serve the other

The discipline to quickly forgive and to ask for forgiveness

A sense of how we are fitting together--us two being better than one

The willingness to really listen and consider the other's view instead of "presuming"

A growing thankfulness for one another

A time to pray together

A time to laugh

Deliver us from:

Taking one another for granted

Failing to appreciate or to build up

Wandering eyes

Emotional divorce

From those who would tear apart our marriage

From work overtaking relationships

Please:

Keep adding layers and layers of glue into our unions and molding us into oneness.

In Jesus' Name,

Amen
